

Please do not mess up the great Do Not Call law that we have in Indiana. My wife and I are very pleased with the fact that we can now eat supper without the phone ringing. I don't think that the Federal law will be as effective as the current Indiana law.

Thank you very much for reading my comment.